

Community Choice Energy

September 26, 2019

Info & resources at www.cleanpowerexchange.org

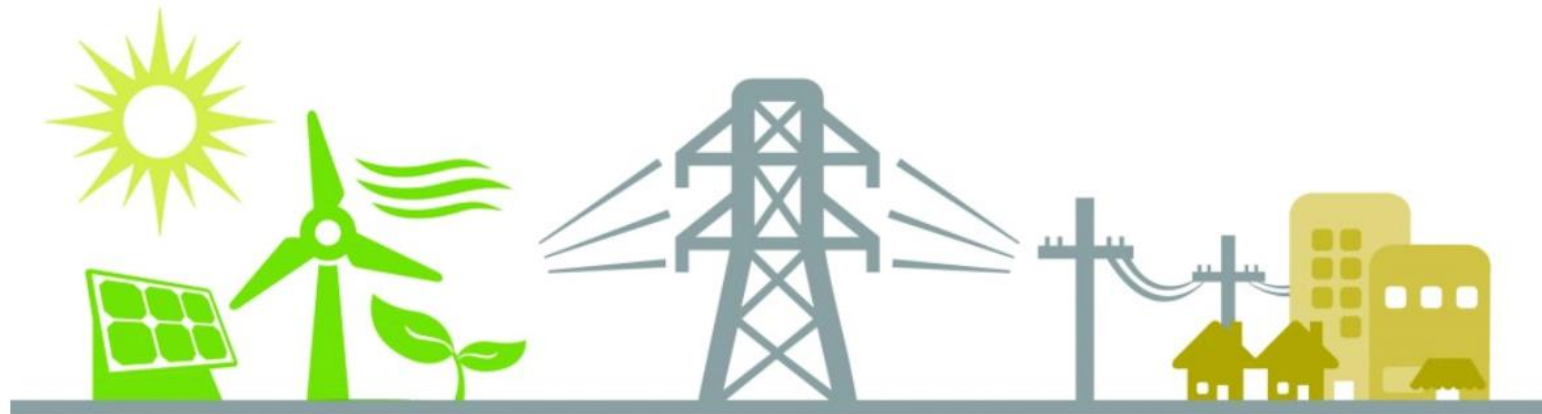

What is Community Choice Energy?

- A local program that buys and can generate electricity for businesses and residents
- Enabled by state law in 2002
- Partners with investor-owned utilities like PG&E to deliver services
- The default service in its service territory

What is Community Choice Energy?

source

CCA

buying and building electricity supply

delivery

UTILITY

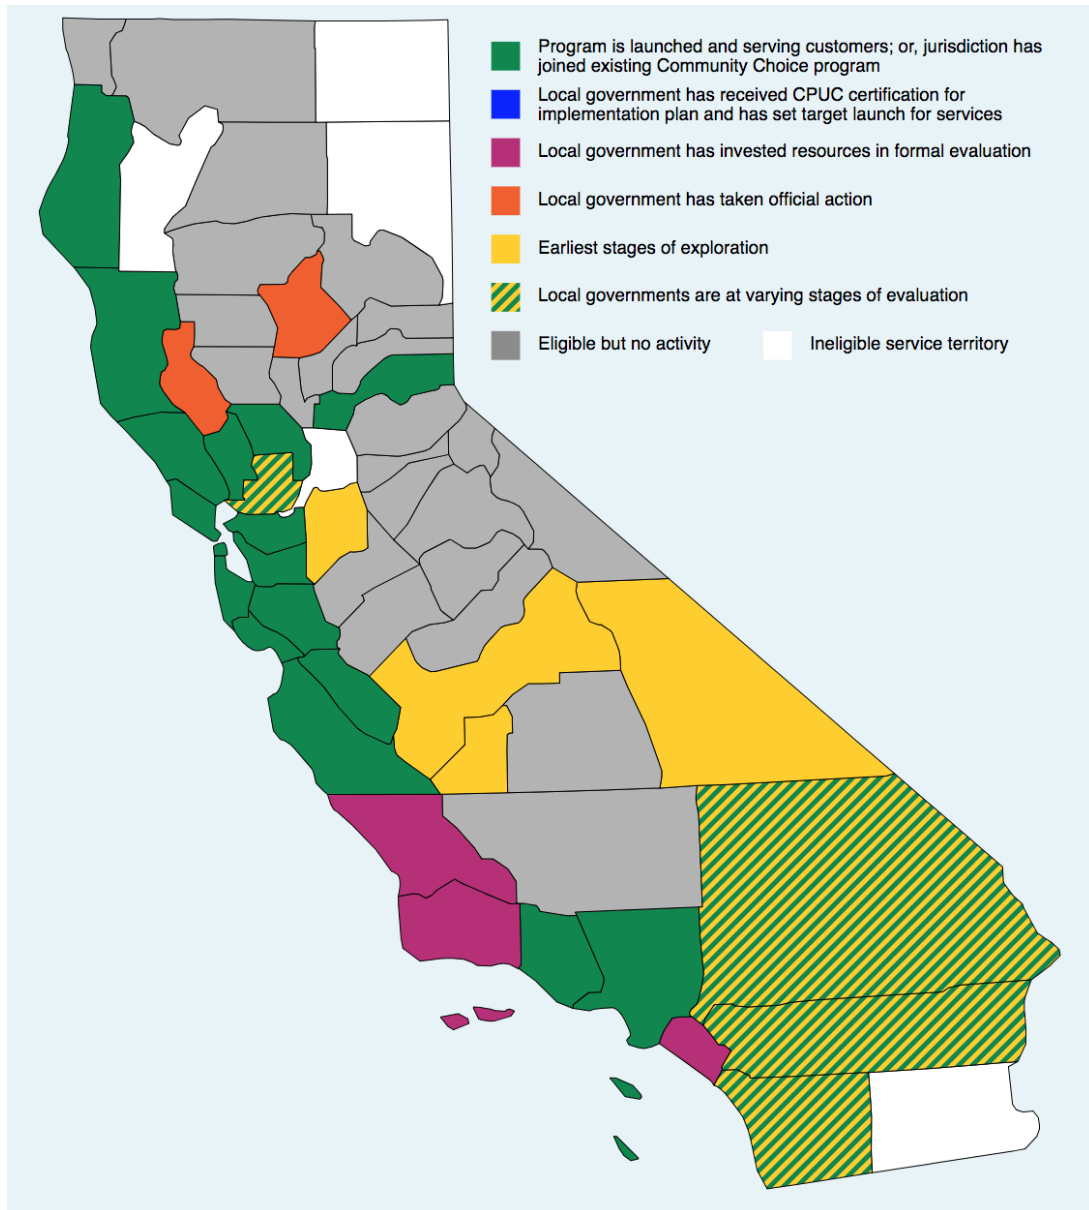

delivering energy,
maintaining lines,
billing customers

customer

YOU

benefitting from affordable rates,
local control,
cleaner energy

Where is it already happening?

Over half the state's population has or is developing Community Choice Energy.

Our interactive map is at cleanpowerexchange.org

What are some benefits of Community Choice Energy?

- Local control
- Local economic benefits/jobs
- Consumer choice
- Competitive, more stable rates
- Innovation platform
- Environmental benefits lead to health benefits

Thank you!

Destiny Rodriguez

Community Relations

559.541.0954

destiny@climateprotection.org

